No.

Office of the District Magistrate,

Mysore District.

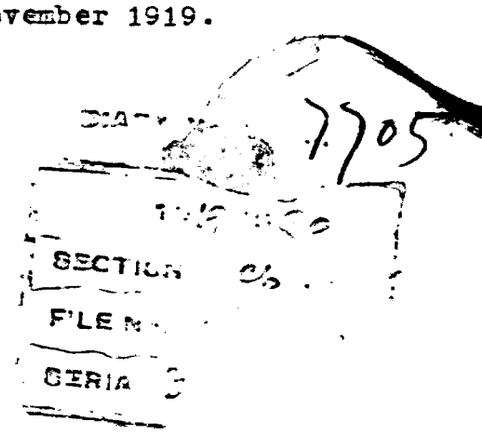
Dated, Mysore, 6th November 1919.

From

P.F. Bowring, Esquire,

District Magistrate,

Mysore District.



To

C.S. Balasundaram Iyer, Esquire, B.A.,

Chief Secretary to the Government of

His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

Bangalore.

Sir,

With reference to para 13 of Government Order No.G.27798-805/ Cts.157-18-2 dated 12th June 1919, regarding the constitution of the Courts of the Benches of Honorary Magistrates in all the Taluk Head Quarters of this District, I have the honor to submit herewith a statement showing the names of persons available to be appointed as Chairmen and Members of the Courts of these Benches in the Head Quarters of the marginally noted taluks except Mysore, where there is already a Court working as constituted in accordance with Government Proceedings No.J.3203-14/Cts.202-07-4 dated 19th April 1909.

2. The names of the individuals mentioned in the list now sent have been confined to only such of them as could be safely recommended for the efficient discharge of the work expected of them, and they are all reported to be literate and respectable in the locality. The Amildar of the Nanjangud Taluk reports that beyond the names of six persons he cannot recommend any more in Nanjangud for the purpose at present.

3. I accordingly request that you may be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for the constitution of these Courts in the aforesaid places tentatively for a period of one year from the 1st of January 1920, for the disposal of petty cases.

(75)

4. Arrangements will be made for providing accommodation for these Courts in consultation with the Amildars concerned, and as there is great difficulty in procuring suitable buildings in the moffussil, and further no accommodation being available therefor in the Taluk Office buildings themselves, private buildings will have to be rented out at a cost not exceeding Rs.5/- per mensem in the case of each Court.

5. An allotment of Rs.3/- per mensem per Court on account of contingencies, and a sum of Rs.200/- for the purchase of the necessary articles of furniture for each Court will be necessary, and this may also be sanctioned.

6. The Superintendent of Stationery will have to be authorised to supply on indent the required forms, registers and other articles of stationery required for the purpose.

7. The Curator, Government Central Book Depot, will be requested to supply such of the Acts, Regulations and Rules as may be necessary for the use of these Courts on receipt of orders sanctioning the proposals.

8. Proposals in regard to the establishment of the Court at Heggadadevankote will be submitted separately on receipt of further information which has been called for from the Sub Division Officer, Mysore Sub Division.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

District Magistrate,
Mysore District.

Sir,

In continuation of my letter No.1687/R.O.C. dated the 12th instant, I have the honor to submit herewith a statement showing the names of persons available in Heggadadevankote for being nominated as Members of the Court of the Bench of Honorary Magistrates to be established at the said place.

Out of the 8 names recommended by the Amildar, Mr. Rangaswami Iyengar No.4 is reported to be the only man who knows how to read and write, and none of them know anything about the Rules or Regulations.

Under these circumstances, I think the only course open will be to appoint the Amildar of the Taluk for the time being as Chairman of the Court at Heggadadevankote till such time that competent men could be secured for the purpose. In case, this proposal commends itself to Government the names contained in the enclosed list may be approved.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

District Magistrate,

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.G.13623 Dts.42-19-8 dated the 11th instant, calling for proposals for the constitution of a Bench Court at Yelandur, I have the honor to submit herewith a statement showing the names of ten individuals eligible for being appointed as Members as received from the Amildar Magistrate of Yelandur with his report No.196 dated the 17th instant, copy of which is also herein enclosed for perusal. It will be seen from this report that out of the 4 persons who have expressed their willingness to serve on the Bench, 2 are related to each other. As however the four names now suggested by the Amildar are not enough, I have again called upon him to submit at once 6 more names in lieu of those who though eligible in other respects have now pleaded their inability to serve as members of the Bench Court, and shall submit the same immediately on receipt.

2. Regarding the accommodation required, I have asked the Amildar to report if any private building can be secured for the purpose at a monthly rental not exceeding Rs.4 or Rs.5/-.

Letter No.196 dated 17th December 1919 from the Amildar Magistrate, Yelandur, to the District Magistrate, Mysore District.

With reference to your order No.R.O.C.1687 J.19-20 dated 13th December 1919, calling for proposals in the matter of constituting a Bench Court in the Jahgir I beg to submit herewith a list of eleven gentlemen with necessary particulras, who may perhaps be regarded as being eligible for the office on grounds of literacy and social position and of whom only four have expressed their willingness to serve on the proposed Bench. Even then four, viz. V.Raghavendra Rao, Venkatanarasayya, Gulam Hussain Sab and Y.K.Linganna Setti are said to be deeply involved in debt. Mr. V.Raghavendra Rao is the uncle of Mr.Venkatanarasayya. If in spite of these drawbacks it is deemed expedient to appoint them as Bench Magistrates, the experiment may be tried with Mr.V.Raghavendra Rao as Chairman and his nephew Mr.Venkatanarasayya and Mr.Gulam Hussein Sab as his colleagues as to ~~engaged~~ suggest any other combination would tend to make it worse. To ~~know~~ throw open the privilege, however, to less desirable men solely on the ground of literacy is calculated to lower the prestige of the court in the eyes of the taluk public and I cannot conscientiously recommend such appointments for sanction. I believe the District Magistrate is personally aware of the want of suitable men to hold the said office as specifically confessed to him by leading men that waited upon him on deputation during his last visit to Yelandur.

As for housing the new court I regret I cannot think of any suitable buidling in the town as in fact we are already much inconvenienced for want of sufficient accommodation even for establishments now at work, to wit, the Police Inspector, Jamadar, Kasba Daffedar and writer being all crammed together in one room. It is therefore proposed to put up a line of out houses in the rear of the Taluk office to relive the existing congestion.

Sir,

In continuation of my letter No.R.O.C.1687/J.1919-20 dated the 19th instant, regarding the Bench Court at the Yelandur Jaghir, I have the honor to submit herewith copy of a report No.213 dated the 26th instant received from the Amildar Magistrate of Yelandur, and to state that under the circumstances mentioned therein, it has become difficult to procure literate men who would be willing to do service as Honorary Magistrates in the locality, and I do not think there is any use of the six persons now recommended by the Amildar as per list enclosed, being appointed as Bench Magistrates when they have all pleaded inability to accept the work. I am therefore of opinion that the four names already suggested may be considered sufficient for the present and the experiment tried for some time.

The Amildar also brings to notice that there is no building available in the place for locating the Court, but however he will be called upon to find one to suit the purpose.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Letter No.213 dated 26th December 1919, from the Amildar Magistrate, Yelandur, to the District Magistrate, Mysore.

With reference to your order No.R.O.C.1687/J.18-19 dated 21-12-1919, directing me to recommend 6 other names to make up the required number of ten I beg to submit that though on account of dearth of eligible men I could not think of any more. I nevertheless selected six others as being fairly good men if not those of consequence or of great influence, whose qualifications etc, are noted in the enclosed list. But five of these, viz, Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4 and 6 expressed their inability to do the duties required of them, and the same they have endorsed in writing in the draft list preserved here. Fifth man is not a resident of Yelandur town as he mostly lives with his family in Maladpalya village, nor does he seem to be willing to work as a Bench Magistrate. As regards the first four persons in the list I know they are all men of slender means, who have to work hard to keep body and soul together, and their plea of inability to render honorary duty is quite bonafide.

Even as regards the four persons reported to in this office No.196 dated 17-12-1919 as being quite willing to serve as Honorary Magistrates I beg leave to submit that my humble views regarding them may kindly be reconsidered as their prospective appointment as such does not appear to meet with public approval here. I beg I may be forgiven my sense of responsibility which alone is responsible for my adverting to it again.

Yelandur is completely evacuated on account of plague. Yet full enquiry was made as to the accommodation that could be had for rent, but no suitable house is reported as being available for the Court House. For want of houses here, one Sub-overseer is put up in a shed specially constructed for his occupation, and the Sub Assistant Surgeon is occupying one room in the Dispensary Building with a shed put up for his kitchen apartments. Every official that is thus recruited from outside is put to much inconvenience in this respect.
